

Martin Luther King Jr. in Chicago

Color Photos of the Freedom Movement

March 29–April 13, 2007
Seattle City Hall

A photo exhibit by Bernard Kleina
of the Chicago Open Housing Campaign led by Martin Luther King Jr.

Opening celebrations on Thursday, March 29

12 noon Lecture by photographer Bernard Kleina
Bertha Landes Room, Seattle City Hall, 600 Fourth Ave.

5:30-7:30 p.m. Opening reception with Bernard Kleina
Main Lobby, Seattle City Hall

Both events are free and open to the public.

This photo exhibit documents the Chicago Open Housing Campaign led by Martin Luther King Jr., documented through the rare color photographs of Bernard Kleina, veteran photographer and fair housing activist.

For more information, call the Seattle Office for Civil Rights at 206-684-4507, or visit www.seattle.gov/civilrights.

Sponsored by the Seattle Office for Civil Rights and the King County Office of Civil Rights.

King County